Symposium Schedule

Thursday, September 15, 2022

1-4 pm Tele-Resuscitation Simulation Workshop - Rachel Umoren, MD

The Simulation Workshop at the annual Neonatal Resuscitation Symposium will focus on Tele-Resuscitation. This workshop will review foundational knowledge basics for optimal resuscitation outcomes by bridging remote facilitation to hospitals in the network, highlight logistical considerations, and review concepts for an impactful simulation training and debriefing session leveraging technology. The workshop will be led by expert, Dr. Rachel Umoren, director of the Neonatal Simulation and Simulation-based Training at the University of Washington and Seattle Children's Hospital.
